music for club chorus approved.
$ 15.50 bill for club printing
approved.

Next Board Meeting is September, 27,
1989. Time 8:00 A.M. Place Alpine
Restaurant. Members may attend.

BYLAWS AMENDED

Wilson School project discussed.
The past two years Club Members have enjoyed listening to children read. This activity has been concentrated in a one week period.
A suggestion for this year is;
we consider one day each month for this activity. And, in addition a proposal has been made to increase our support for the school and to the children. Club members could demonstrate hobbies, read their favorite stories. The Club is planning to furnish kits containing crayons, paints, glue, pencils, scissors: 3 kits per grade level. Several pairs of gym shoes of various sizes that the gym teacher can use and reuse are needed.

The Question: " Effective October 1,
1989 CLUB BYLAWS Article XV, Sec. 2., Line 1 is amended to read: The annual dues shall be $ 50.00 ----,"

The Vote: By secret ballot.

Eligible Members	62 = 100%
Yes	55 = 88.7%
No	6 = 9.7%
Abstain	1 = 1.6%

Totals 62 = 100%

CLUB BYLAWS are amended from annual dues of $ 45.00 to $ 50.00 . WELL DONE. Thats WELL DONE ! Blackhawk Golden "K".

SPIRITUAL AIMS

" Adopt A School " is one of Kiwanis International Major Emphasis programs. This project may be one that qualifies.

A distinguished Club President award means the club has had a outstanding year. Board discussion authorized President Hicks to submit documentation to the 1988-89 Lieutenant Governor.

Today's Speaker, Salvation Army Major Ron Gorton (recently joined the Noon Kiwanis Club) raised our consciousness of the importance of religious and spiritual values. Bell ringing is just around the corner.

Warm welcome to Janesville Kiwanis Inter - Club, Ellis Jensen, Rus Hegge, Bob Bennett, Don Lukas and Ron Gorton.
Extra points when reporting, Mr. Sec. .
