DECEASED MEMBER

We lost a fine Kiwanian when Paul Loofboro died September 13, 1994 at Rock Haven. Paul graduated from Milton College and received a M.S. degree from UW-Madison. He was a teacher, superintendent, and the head of a C.E.S.A. District in his many years in education. We know that he has seen his pilot, face to face, when he crossed the bar.

This is a joint venture with the Sons of Norway. Serving will be 4-8 PM. Cost is $4.00 per person. Our share of the profits will go into our Administrative Account, therefore this is open only to members and guests. The price is right, the hours flexible. Most members should be able to attend. See you there.

KIWAN-I-TEMS

Robert Corneth has donated $100 to the Club in recognition of the wonderful way he was remembered with thoughts and notes during his long illness. He would like all members to think of the Club with monetary thoughts.

Dick Murphy was invited to a luncheon on Sept. 22 to meet the new Chairperson for Meals on Wheels, Doris Mishler. We look forward to our continuing to work in this activity and to hear its history at our Oct. 26 meeting.

Dick Kingsley responded to the cry, "BINGO" with $4.60 when he and 10 other members visited Rock County Health Care Center.

Jesse Scarborough and John Egelston continue to lead a good sized contingent to the task of mailing the monthly Priority One newsletter. This remains a top priority.

INSTALLATION BREAKFAST

The Sons of Norway served an excellent breakfast for our installation meeting. After our normal ritual and business, Woody Schoenfeld presented outgoing President Ken Cummins with a Kiwanis watch. Thanks, Ken for a great year.

Ken gave recognition to his officer corps and committee chairmen who were presented with certificates.

Lt. Governor James T. Harder installed the officers and board members for 1994-1995. His remarks were informal and he made it clear that he would follow advice given him to not use the power given to his office.

President Dave Ziegler made a few remarks that set the course for his year. Congratulations, Dave!!

The meeting concluded with some of the ladies winning the flower decorations.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

President Elect Dave Ziegler presented the proposed budget for 94/95. A copy will be distributed to all members at a meeting in October.

An audit committee will be appointed to audit the financial records for the 93/94 administrative year.

Due to cost increases, an additional $75 was approved for Parenting the First Year newsletters. The Noon Club will pay a like amount.

The donation from Robert Corneth will go into the Administration Account.

$50 was approved for the Rock County United Nations Association for UN Day at UW-Rock County.
