CLUB EDUCATION

Districts are organized into division. The chief executive officer of the district is the governor. The chief executive officer of a division is the lieutenant governor.

KIWANIS ITEMS

Again thanks to our members who monthly give the enjoyment of playing bingo to the residents of the Rock County Health care Center.

The Priority-One Boys had to make two attempts this month. We'll label them E.P. for extra persistent. Thanks for the successful second effort.

Our big-wheelers are out there every noon this week and next delivering the hot meals to those who can't prepare their own.

NEW MEMBERS

Al Gilbertson, Harry Kowal and Paul Will joined the Golden-K and we are very pleased to welcome them. Ray Anderson sponsored Al who is a retired sales manager of Beloit Corp. Al attended school in Janesville and St. Olof College, and enjoys hunting, fishing and golf. Harry is a Janesville Grad. and attended Milton College. He retired as a cost estimator at Gilman and enjoys wood crafts, water color painting, golf and bridge. John Higgins and Floyd Kowal sponsored him. Paul, who earned his B.S. and M.S. at UW-Whitewater, is the retired head of the Business Ed. Dept. at Parker H.S.. He also likes to swing the clubs and if necessary bid them. Marv Hauser sponsored Paul. Great to have all of you join.

DUES FOR NEW MEMBERS

The initiation fee, which covers Club, District and international administrative expenses, is $25.00. Annual dues if $50.00. Total for new members is $75.00.

After 31 March the dues is reduced to $25.00 for the balance of the administrative year which ends September 30. Total for new members is $50.00.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

At Christmas and throughout the year remember that "If we seek God for our own good and profit, we are not seeking God". Johannes Eckhart

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHT

Our blue spruce tree sale will take place on 22 April 1995. The trees will be a little larger than this year. The price will be $1.25 each. 7000 trees have been ordered.

A committee was appointed to study the feasibility for future Spagette Dinners and make recommendations. Target is March 1995.

A social committee will be established for membership social events with a budget of $50 for Miscellaneous expenses.

The board will purchase a 4-drawer file Cabinet for Club Historical records, etc. Sons of Norway will provide the space.

Council on Aging, Transportation Program was approved as a volunteer program for Golden-K.

Merry Christmas
