3. A motion was made to contribute $150 to Wilson School in support of the school tutoring program.
4. It was agreed that the Golden K Kiwanis continue the program at Wilson School next year.

GOLDEN K MEMBERS KEEP LOCAL VISITORS AND TOURISTS INFORMED

The Janesville Convention and Visitors Bureau Information Center was completely manned by Golden "K" members at its inception about 13 years ago. Today, John Dooley and George Christopherson still serve. Russ Hegge retired this year.

IDD Chairman - Jim Clark (for June)

The children of the world threw up their hands, shouted with joy and tossed down an extra dose of salt over the fact that the Blackhawk Golden "K" members continue to make the IDD fund grow. Our club contributed over $10,000 over a very short period of time

Last month's contributions were down a little, however, averaging $27.06 per meeting.

Our thanks and condolences to Dewey Cooper who made a major contribution on behalf of his daughter following her untimely accidental death.

And those pesky, but welcome, $2.00 bills keep showing up.

..... Thanks, Jim

BLOODMOBILE— by Marv Hauser

351 pints of blood were donated to the Red Cross drive on June 14-16. Golden "K" contributed 128 hours of time. We furnished 43% of the volunteers. Six members donated blood. 34 individuals including 8 wives worked on this project. A big Thank You to the following wives: Diane Adams, Elinor Johnson, Carolyn Mowbray, Myrt Oestreich, Maggie Olson, Joyce Rohrbacher, Betty Roth, Jan Schuetz.

RECREATION: Social Committee

Chairman - Fred Kufrin

Our first Blackhawk golfing was rained out in May, so we had two events in June. We had 27 members turn out for both events. The June 11 event was a scramble team event. Two teams tied for 1st place with an even par score. Next month we'll reward the good putters— July 9th at Blackhawk. Also, don't forget to sign up for July 15th at Cecelia's— Thursday at 9:00 AM, with lunch and prizes.

YCPO - Parenting the First Year Newsletter
Co- Chairmen Charlie Wanniger & Tom Albanese
 On June 23, 16 Golden "K" and 6 Noon Club Kiwanians prepared 1,173 Newsletters for mailing. 2,346 individuals benefited from this project. The cost of printing the letters was $293.25. A big THANK YOU to all participants!!

Chairman - Jim Clark (for July)

$10,320.22 and growing! Each week you fellows help the less fortunate of the world through your contributions to our IDD fund. Every nickle, penny, dime and quarter has helped. And those dollar bills are big help!

Kiwanis International informs us that the "active phase of the Worldwide Service Project is scheduled to conclude by the end of 2000, but pledges will be collected beyond that time, and remaining country programs will be funded."

And Keith Collins told me this would just be an easy little project! We'll be coming up with some more interesting collection ideas in the future, but please don't let your weekly contributions drop.

Thanks again! ..... Jim
