The Whitewater Breakfast Club gave $10,000 toward the handicapped play area in Starin Park in Whitewater. This park is located downtown behind Novak's Restaurant. The next time you are in Whitewater take a look around. What a great gift. They also contributed $4500 towards the Wisconsin History Project of the Whitewater Historical society.

The Mid-winter convention is coming up, February 12-13, 2010, at the Sierra Suites in Green Bay. We are looking for some representation from our clubs. Registration is $75 each, $95 after January 23rd.

In June (June 24-27) the International Convention will be in Las Vegas. There will be great speakers at the convention as usual. Colin Powell will be the featured speaker at the opening session on Thursday, June 24th. Jerry Mathers (Leave It To Beaver) also a former Key Clubber, will give a talk about the golden age of television at a breakfast Saturday morning June 26th. Jay Leno also will be there for a show Friday night June 25th. Also there will be other great things going on during the convention. Take a minute and get on the Internet to look up these great days of the International Convention in Las Vegas.
